

AGREEMENT

With Traction Company Will
Have to be Met

Meeting at Assembly Room Next Wednesday Evening to Discuss Matters.

The following agreement which was signed by a number of our citizens in their efforts to land the power house for this city must be complied with at once, and for information of those who signed it we print the agreement and names of the citizens who affixed their names:

Rushville, Ind., June, 1903.
In consideration of the location by the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction Company of its principal power station together with a car storage house and car repair shop upon the real estate in the city of Rushville, Indiana, bounded on the west by Julian street, on the north by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis & Western Railway, on the south by Third street, and on the east and southeast by a highway running along the millrace, the undersigned promise and agree with said company and guarantee to it:

1st. That they will cause to be conveyed to it said real estate by good and perfect title of record, clear and free from all liens and incumbrances, by good and sufficient deed or deeds of general warranty, at a consideration of Five Thousand Dollars, ($5000.)

2d. That the City of Rushville, Indiana, will during the year 1903 cause to be constructed, and there after maintained, a storm sewer carrying away the water from said property so as to abolish, and do away with the open drain running from the same along the millrace to the south.

3d. That the City of Rushville, Indiana, will, during the year 1903, cause to be constructed a sanitary sewer not farther away from said property than the intersection of Perkins street and Third street sufficient for the sanitary drainage of said property to a depth of seven (7) feet at the southwest corner thereof, and granting to said Company the right to construct and maintain a sewer from said property into such sanitary sewer of sufficient capacity to meet its needs in connection with the buildings aforesaid.

4th. That the City of Rushville, Indiana, will also divert the water running under the Cincinnati, Indianapolis & Western Railway, north of said property, so that it will flow to the west and not flow across or along said property.

The conveyance above referred to of said property shall be secured within (60) days and accompanied by abstracts of title from a reputable abstractor of titles, showing the title conveyed to be perfect of record and clear from all liens.

The power house and other buildings referred to, shall all be constructed not later than January 1st, 1905. Should it be necessary to condemn any of said property, such condemnation proceedings are to be brought by said company and the costs of the same shall be paid by the undersigned, and a reasonable time shall be given the undersigned to procure the title to any property that it may be necessary to condemn.

The Traction company has already paid their $5000, and the guarantors will have to raise an additional $500 to finish paying for what has already been deeded to the company.

Then too, under the above agreement the Warfield and Wilson lot will have to be secured at once as the company must begin the construction of the car barns and repair shops at once.

The sewer on Perkins street, it will be remembered, was to be constructed in 1903 and the guarantors will have to see that it is completed in the shortest possible time according to agreement.

There will be a meeting of the signers of the guarantee at the assembly room, Wednesday evening, May 4th, to consider the propositions that they are "up against" and it is very essential that each and every one be present.

NEAR DEATH

Eight Women Almost Asphyxiated in Rev. Russell's
Pittsburg Church

Mrs. Charlotte Hastings Well Known in Rushville Among the Number.

Death by suffocation came very near being the fate of eight members of the Aid Society, of Rev. W. J. Russell's East End Christian church, at Pittsburg, last Saturday. So far none have recovered from the effects of their experience.

The women had gathered at the church for an all-day sewing. Those present were Mrs. Charlotte Hastings, mother of Mrs. Russell, wife of the pastor of the church, Mrs. Roll, Mrs. Charlton, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. J. R. Hodges, Mrs. Emma McMichael, Mrs. Dreyfus and Mrs. Walters, all ladies prominently identified with church work and well known in Pittsburg. The ladies had spent the morning sewing at the church and had repaired to the kitchen in the basement for luncheon. They had not been long at the table however, until all began to feel peculiar sensations. Their hearts beat in an unusual manner and they complained of being sick. The gas gave forth no odor and they remained in the kitchen until 1 o'clock, when several of the members became deadly ill. Mrs. Hastings staggered upstairs to the parlor and fell unconscious. Several more ladies became overcome and one of the women succeeded in staggering out and summoning a physician who happened to be passing by. He found it necessary to inject strychnine into Mrs. Hastings and it was a long time before he succeeded in bringing her back to consciousness. Rev. Russell was hurriedly summoned and he found that the gas had escaped from a water heater, which he was using to warm the water in the baptistry.

Mrs. Hastings is now somewhat better, but she is still suffering greatly. None of the ladies have recovered completely as yet.

Mrs. Hastings is well known here, once living here when Rev. Russell was pastor of the Main street Christian church and Rushville people will regret to learn of her terrible experience.

A Deserved Endorsement.

Judge Crumpacker's renomination for congress by acclamation by the Republicans of the Tenth district is an honor any man could not fail to appreciate. The action of the convention is in perfect harmony with the wishes of the people of the district for whose interests Mr. Crumpacker has labored faithfully, intelligently and to good purpose. His election is, of course, assured beyond peradventure, and his continued services in congress, as heretofore, will be marked by constantly increasing usefulness. In honoring Judge Crumpacker the district also does great honor to itself.—Lafayette Courier.

FIRE FIGHTERS

George W. Thomas and Wife
Save Their Home From Flames

Fire Originated in Closet Under Stairs from Waste Saturated
With Floor Oil.

The home of George W. Thomas on Perkins street near Fourth was saved by timely action and the presence of mind of Mr. Thomas and wife from destruction by fire last night.

About eleven o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, who sleep upstairs, noted an odor of smoke coming from below, and made what they thought a thorough search, but failing to discover the smoke, returned to their room.

A few minutes later they heard a noise which they thought was some one below and Mr. Thomas called down stairs to ascertain who it was making the "crackling noise" and receiving no reply, hurried down stairs and found the lower floor enveloped in smoke and flames leaping out of the closet under the stairs.

With unusual fore-sight and in a cool-headed manner he called to his wife and told her to have Warder Wyatt send in the fire alarm and then turning on the electric lights and the water at the hydrant and with a bucket and alone, Mr. Thomas began systematically fighting the fire.

His wife having returned carried water to Mr. Thomas, and before the fire company arrived, Mr. Thomas had the fire under complete control.

The fire is thought to have originated from a bundle of waste saturated with a floor varnish made of japalac and turpentine, which they had been using the day before, and having been "wadded" together, it became ignited by spontaneous combustion.

The alarm was turned in at box 26 at Fourth and Perkins by Warder Wyatt.

Mr. Thomas was "scorched" some, and his hair and whiskers badly singed but he regards himself lucky in saving his home.

The house and contents are both insured and Mr. Thomas will no doubt be reimbursed for this loss. The loss to the house and contents is estimated at about $300.

The stupid lawyer had wearied the judge with a long argument and stopped long enough to ask:

"Do you follow me, your honor?" "I've tried to so far," replied the judge, "but if I could find my way back I'd quit right here."

SPARKS FOR JUDGE

Popular Young Attorney Being Pressed to Become a Candidate.

Hon. Will M. Sparks is being urged by his many friends in both this and Shelby county to make the race for Judge of this circuit.

Shelby county Republicans say that Mr. Sparks can carry that county, and it is a well known fact that Mr. Sparks will get every Republican vote in this county.

Will Sparks is a man of about thirty-five years of age, has been elected to the legislature twice, knows nearly every voter in the county, is a good, clean, honest and popular young man, and his legal ability cannot be questioned.

BACK TO HARBOR

Vladivostok Squadron Regains Shelter Under Cover of a Fog

Details of the Sinking of the Japanese Transport Kin
Shiu Maru are Still Lacking.

Shanghai, April 29.—It is reported here that the Russians have suffered a disastrous repulse after two days' fighting on the Yalu river. The Japanese forces crossed the river and the Russians retreated.

London, April 29.—A Tokio correspondent asserts that the Russian cruisers slipped past the Japanese squadron during a fog and regained the harbor of Vladivostok.

This is the only additional news that has reached London concerning the Vladivostok squadron. No further details have been received regarding the sinking of the Japanese transport Kin Shiu Maru, which incident is much commented on here as proving that the Japanese placed too great confidence in their command of the sea, and there is no doubt that it will induce greater vigilance on their part. There is some inclination to criticize harshly the action of Rear Admiral Yeszen, but most of the papers prefer to await particulars of the affair before passing judgment upon it.

The report that the Japanese have occupied Kitu Tiencheng has not yet been confirmed.

According to a Tien Tsin correspondent the whole country outside the great wall is abnormally flooded, and any movement of the land forces is impracticable for the present. A special dispatch from Port Arthur says that the demonstration made by Japanese torpedo boats covered by a Japanese squadron off Port Arthur yesterday morning was for the purpose of creating a scare and inducing the batteries to waste their ammunition, but the Russians refrained from answering the Japanese fire.

A Copenhagen correspondent says there are rumors that Russia is negotiating for the purchase of the Danish liners Hekla, Norge and Island.

IT GIVES THEM HOPE

Vladivostok Squadron Offers Encouragement to Despondent Russians.

St. Petersburg, April 29.—The operations of the Vladivostok squadron have revived the spirits of the people of St. Petersburg, who have been downcast since the destruction of the Petropavlovsk and the consequent confinement of the remnant of the Port Arthur fleet to the harbor. The fact that the navy is doing something of an offensive character appeals to the popular mind, which has been unable to appreciate the reason for the inactivity of the fine ships of the Vladivostok squadron.

It is generally recognized that Rear Admiral Yeszen cannot do more than frighten the Japanese and compel them to exercise greater care in their military movements, as the sinking of a few transports or even cruisers can have no permanent effect on the result of the war. Moreover, he is bound by his instructions not to risk his ships unduly, the intention being to keep them safe for an attack with the Baltic fleet when it arrives in the Pacific.

The possibility of a Japanese attempt to mine the entrances to Vladivostok, as was done at Port Arthur, is considered, but the conditions are different and, besides, Rear Admiral Yeszen with the lesson of the Petropavlovsk disaster fresh in his mind, will observe the utmost caution.

St. Petersburg is loaded with rumors regarding the sinking of the Japanese military transport, the Kin Shiu Maru. One report has it that 3,600 men were aboard the transport when she went down, but the admiralty insists that there were only 200. It is said that the emperor is highly indignant over the affair and that he will relieve Yeszen and order him to be court-martialed. This report lacks confirmation in responsible naval circles, where it is reiterated that no other course could be pursued, and that the admiral only fired when the Japanese categorically refused to surrender and adopted a hostile attitude.

Submarine Boat Plans.

Port Arthur, April 29.—One of the submarine boats which were put in commission April 24 was received in section at Port Arthur before the war began. At the first opportunity it is intended that the submarine vessel shall be employed against the heavy ships of the enemy.

Cold Delays Army's Advance.

Liao Yang, April 29.—The delay of the forward movement of the Japanese into Manchuria is due to the exceptionally severe weather. It is rumored that there is considerable suffering among the Japanese troops due to illness and the intense cold.

DO NOT WANT WAR

Chinese People Not Prepared to Take Aggressive Action.

Paris, April 29.—Mr. Souen, the Chinese minister, in an interview said that his government could not view with satisfaction Russia's indefinite occupation of Manchuria, but that it was determined to maintain good relations with the Russian government. War, the minister said, was not desired at Peking. If any counsellors existed who were unreasonable enough to propose to attack Russia while that country was engaged with Japan they would not meet with any credit from Chinese statesmen familiar with foreign affairs.

"China has no interest in attacking Russia," continued the minister. "We are fully aware that intervention might cause dangerous complications, the outcome of which would be fatal to China herself. Whatever our sympathies may be we will not launch our country into a wild adventure."

"Our trained troops near the great wall do not exceed 20,000, and it is not with such a force that the Russian army could be conquered. Japanese aid would not help us much and, moreover, the court is not anxious to introduce the Japanese army into China, even for the purpose of defending the country."

"At the same time it is certain that the Chinese masses are favorable to Japan. Our government's sole care, according to my latest advice, is to restrain popular excitement and the strictest orders have been given to the local authorities to use even unaccustomed rigor for the purpose of preventing risings. I sincerely trust that these precautions will suffice, even in the event of Japanese success, but it must be remembered that our subprefects have very inadequate means of enforcing obedience when the masses become greatly excited. The only danger of complications lies in a spontaneous rising of the people."

Children Cause Divorce.

Knoxville, Tenn., April 29.—Mrs. R. L. Taylor has been granted a divorce from ex-Governor Robert L. Taylor in chancery court after the depositions of a few witnesses had been read. The question of alimony was referred to the clerk and master for settlement. Mr. Taylor has served three terms as governor of Tennessee, and has a national reputation as a lecturer and musician. Mrs. Taylor was Mrs. Alice Pitts Hill of Tuscaloosa, Ala., before her marriage to the ex-governor three years ago. Both had children by former marriages, and they, it is alleged, caused the unhappiness.

Shot Without Warning.

Kansas City, April 29.—Dick Malloy, a saloon keeper, was shot and killed here by William Burgoyne. Burgoyne is known as a "killer" to the police of many Western cities. Six weeks ago he shot and killed Fred Hunnel, a switchman, in a fight in this city, but was discharged at his preliminary hearing. Burgoyne is also known as a politician in St. Louis. Since coming to this city two years ago he has held several municipal positions, Burgoyne shot Malloy without warning, but the shooting was the renewal of a previous quarrel.

Deed of an Insane Woman.

Jeffersonville, Ind., April 29.—Clara Cooley, twenty-three years old, supposed to be insane, drowned her eighteen-months-old child in a creek at New Providence, on the Monon railway, twenty miles north of here. A neighbor saw Miss Cooley pass his home on her way to the creek, and later she returned with the dead infant in her arms and told what she had done.

A ROUSING CAMPAIGN

Is Now Before the Republicans of the Hoosier State.

Indianapolis, April 29.—That the Republicans will conduct a rousing campaign in Indiana this year is now assured. The very make-up of the ticket is convincing that there will be a lot doing in the spellbinding line. With two such men as Senator Beveridge and J. Frank Hanly going up and down the state making speeches, the Republican leaders are assured that the issues will be ably presented. Senator Beveridge will be in Indiana practically all the time from now until the legislature meets. He has always responded very readily to the calls for speeches, and now that he is a candidate he may be depended on for more.
Hanly likewise has been a leading speaker in the last ten or twelve years and now that he is at the head of the ticket he is naturally very anxious to make a fine showing. As to when the speaking campaign will be started no decision has been reached, but it is not very likely that the opening will be set for earlier than the first of September.

An analysis of the vote for the Republican nomination for governor makes Hanly's victory seem more remarkable than the stampede that clinched it. Probably no other candidate for governor with such a strong opposition ever had such an equally distributed vote. Seventy-five of the ninety-two counties cast all or a portion of their vote for him. Every district except the Seventh, Eleventh and Twelfth, which had candidates, gave him a majority. He had votes from every county in the First, Second, Fourth, Fifth, Eighth, Ninth and Tenth. In every county in the Third and Sixth except one, and in all but two in the Thirteenth he received votes. The result is now being pointed to as an evidence of his strong personal popularity. Some of his opponents are trying to show that it was the result of his organization, which is conceded to have been ace high, but those who take it from a non-partisan view simply say that his personality
had a lot to do with it.

While Warren G. Sayre of Wabash was unable to land the Republican nomination for governor, a great honor
may be in store for him when the legislature meets next winter. As he stated when he withdrew before the convention and moved that the nomination of Hanly be made unanimous,
he has the nomination for representative from Wabash county up his sleeve.
The nomination is equivalent to an election, as the county is normally Republican by several hundred. Sayre was one of the very prominent factors during the last session. Over fifteen years ago he was speaker of the house, filling the position with dignity and fairness. A boom is now being started to make him speaker at the next session. Probably it can't be called a boom just yet, for none of the legislators have been elected, yet it is in the air to make him speaker, and that counts a good deal in political contests, as results show.

The state convention has almost entirely disappeared. The rotund and familiar figure of Union Banner Hunt
was conspicuous in the Hotel English today, but he is getting ready to go back to his law practice at Winchester. He is naturally highly elated with the result, both on account of his great personal regard for Hanly and because he helped manage the latter's campaign. Hanly has returned to Lafayette, where a great reception will be tendered him tonight by his home folks. Judge Penfield left this morning for Auburn, where he will rest a few days before returning to Washington to resume his position as solicitor for the state department. Warren G.
Sayre left for Wabash the night after the convention, and all of the candidates are now back to their own bail-iwicks. The haunts of the Republican politicians bear out in appearance the oft repeated statement about the calm following the storm.

Miners Resent Union's Ruling.
Springfield, Ill., April 29.—Two hundred miners at the Woodside Coal company's mine at this city struck yesterday, owing to the sub-district union of the United Mine Workers of America expelling from the union two of the drivers at the mine who had not obeyed the orders of the union. The miners held a meeting last night and will endeavor to get men from the four other mines in the sub-district to take the matter up for settlement.

Eastern Star Grand Officers.
Indianapolis, April 29.—The following officers were elected at the meeting of the Indiana grand lodge Order of the Eastern Star: Grand matron, Mrs. Anna C. Banes; Metamora; grand patron, William Conrad; Warsaw; associate grand matron, Mrs. Agnes L.
Hartsuck; Kendallville; associate grand patron, Frank M. Forkner; Hartford City; secretary, Mrs. Nettie Ran-ford; Indianapolis; treasurer, Mrs. Carrie M. Fanning; Butler.

Now He Will Stay Awhile.
Shanghai, April 29.—The reformer
Wang Chao, who was disgraced on account of his friendship for the agitator Kang Yu Wei, returned recently to Peking and was immediately arrested and sentenced to imprisonment for life
at the instigation of the Manchu
prince Natung.

Crawfordsville, Ind., April 29.—Robert Davis, a wealthy and prominent farmer near Linden, committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn. He was sixty years old and leaves a family. Davis had been in poor health and was despondent.

AN INTERESTING SCENE

Minority Leader Williams Introduces
a Resolution Testifying to the Speaker's Good Qualities.

In the Senate the Minority Seizes
the Opportunity to Further Play Politics.

Washington, April 29.—The closing of the second session of the house of the 58th congress was made notable by the demonstration which was evoked by a resolution offered by Mr. Williams, the minority leader, testifying to the courtesy and impartial manner

HON. JOSEPH G. CANNON.

in which Speaker Cannon had presided over the house. The resolution was not of the perfunctory kind, but was expressive of the kindly feeling which men in the house of all parties entertained toward him. In a graceful speech the speaker declared his appreciation of the resolution. Many conference reports were agreed to on bills which had been in dispute between the two houses. The only debate of any importance was on the bill providing for the restoration to the naval academy of three cadets who had been dismissed for hazing, the house voting overwhelmingly against it.

The members, after the speaker announced final adjournment, joined in singing patriotic airs, and slowly filed out of the hall after shaking hands with the speaker and bidding him goodby.

A QUIET ENDING

Adjournment in Senate Devoid of Unusual Incident.

Washington, April 29.—With brief announcement and a sharp rap of his well-worked gavel, President Pro Tem Frye adjourned the senate sine die
yesterday, the hour fixed by resolution of the two houses of congress. The

SENATOR FRYE.

occurrence was devoid of unusual incident, and the final close of the session was but slightly different from the end of an ordinary day's sitting.
The work of the session had been concluded before the final word was said,
so that neither rush nor confusion
marked the end.

The greater part of the time was devoted to a political debate, participated in on the Republican side by Messrs. Allison and Aldrich, and on the Democratic side by Messrs. Gorman and Culberson. The discussion was based on a statement by Mr. Allison of the appropriations for the session, comparing the figures for this year and for the administration of President Roosevelt with those of other years and other administrations. The president and his cabinet occupied the president's advisers' office room during a part of the debate, and some of the president's advisers were among the most interested listeners to the criticism and defense of their chief.
Mrs. Roosevelt and other members of the president's family occupied seats in the gallery toward the close of the session, and they, too, found entertainment in the proceedings.

The only important acts of legislation during the day were the presentation and acceptance of conference reports on the Panama canal government and emergency river and harbor bills. Neither report aroused debate.

The correspondent from Ging deplores the fact that so much "contrariness" has an abiding place there. He need not be unduly concerned therefor, as unfortunately, for the rest of the world, Ging has not a monopoly of that characteristic.

Carthage.

Mrs. Levi Binford, Miss Nora and Miss Rose Henley were in Indianapolis, Tuesday.

Dan Loudenback's team of horses, hitched to a wagon became frightened while standing at the Planing mill, Wednesday noon, and ran east and north to Jesse M. Stone's lawn before caught. A shade tree turned the team aside and probably saved the lives of some little girls who were in the path of the horses.

Class No. 8 of the Friends' Sunday school entertained at the home of Miss Winona Newsom, Monday night, in honor of Miss Cora Clark, who will soon leave for Onway, Mich., to spend the summer; Miss Lululee Robinson, who will return to her home at Sturgis, Mich., and Miss Pearl Kitchen, who will attend school at I. U., Bloomington. Letters of the alphabet were given out in pairs and were used in making original rhymes. Various games were played after which the guests were invited to the dining room, where a two-course menu of nut sandwiches, pickles, fruit salad, wafers and kisses were served, while each one told his or her funniest experience. Later, each one told a thrilling ghost story while the lights burned low. Rev. Whitley, teacher of the class, made a few appropriate remarks.

Prof. and Mrs. J. H. Scholl gave a delightful reception for the Seniors, Tuesday night. Several amusing contests were provided for the entertainment of the young graduates. The boys were called on to display their taste and skill in trimming hats. The girls played marbles. The prizes were bows of ribbons of the class colors (old rose and silver gray). Miss Robinson played a number of familiar pieces on the piano, and Earl Norris won the prize—a bunch of cream roses—for guessing the greatest number of the selections. The refreshments were ice cream and cake. Mr. Scholl's niece, Miss Nellie V. Jones, of Connersville, who is their house guest until after commencement, was the only one present from out of town.

Miss Ida L. Ludlow, Miss Hattie O. Hendricks, Profs. E. A. Lanning and C. R. Keller were guests of honor at a farewell reception given by Class No. 8 of the M. E. Sunday school at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Tindall, Wednesday night. Each member of the class contributed an autograph wish for each departing member. After the wishes were read the white cards, decorated with red horse-shoes were made into booklets and tied with red and white ribbon (the class colors) and a gilded wishbone. The covers were decorated with a large horse-shoe, containing the words "Good Luck Comes." The booklets and a new gilded horse-shoe were then presented to each of the four honor guests, who expressed their thanks to the class. Kisses, filled dates and lemonade were partaken of while "good luck" stories were recited. Miss Ludlow anticipates attending I. U., at Bloomington; Miss Hendricks and Mr. Fred Scott, of Louisville, Ky., are to be married in May; Prof. E. A. Lanning will probably attend Chicago University, and Prof. C. R. Keller will represent the Equitable Life Insurance Co., with headquarters at Greensburg. The regular business meeting preceded the social, and at the close Rev. Scull invited the class to meet at the parsonage the last Wednesday night in May.

Mayor of Council Bluffs Told Gamblers Where to Head In.

Council Bluffs, Ia., April 29.—Mayor McCrae, elected at the recent city election, raided a number of places where gambling was said to be going on and caused the arrest of fourteen inmates. At one place known as the "Manhattan" the mayor appeared suddenly and without warning. The inmates attempted to escape, but the mayor placed his back against the door and drew a revolver, ordering them to submit to arrest. A patrol wagon took them all, together with the fixtures and furniture of the place, to the police station.

Until he is confirmed Crum cannot draw any salary, but it is said that his friends have arranged to see that he is provided with ample funds. Should he be confirmed the government will of course pay him the back salary.

STATE NEWS

Jeffersonville, Ind., April 29.—An attempt to assassinate D. M. Robins, candidate for mayor of Jeffersonville on the independent labor ticket, was made late at night at his home, 318 Meigs avenue. Mr. Robins was seated at a table in the front room when two shots were fired in quick succession and two bullets went through the lace curtains at the side of the front window on a line with Mr. Robins' body. The first shot tore a splinter from the back of the chair in which he was seated, and the second struck a lamp chimney on the table, smashing it to pieces, then lodged in a Bible that Mr. Robins carried in the pocket of his waistcoat. Robins had received anonymous letters, warning him that his life was in danger.

HOWARD TATE'S TRIAL

On Charge of Murder Attracts Attention at Petersburg.

Petersburg, Ind., April 29.—The trial of Howard Tate for the murder of John Hodges, at Huntingburg, Dubois county, brought here on change of venue, is attracting widespread attention, and bids fair to be one of the hardest-fought trials in the history of the county. Both Tate and Hodges were boarders at a boarding-house much frequented by railway men, at Huntingburg. There was a quarrel between them, inspired, as alleged, by jealousy, and Hodges left the house. He was followed by Tate, and the shooting occurred in the street. Tate fired four shots, all of them taking effect, and Hodges, it is further stated, ran to him, placing his foot on his breast and clubbing him with his revolver, but was prevented by bystanders from continuing the assault. All of the witnesses are subjected to severe cross-examination, it being claimed by the defendant that Hodges lay in waiting for Tate, armed with a brick and a knife, and that he did not use his revolver until after his own life had been threatened.

Among the interested spectators is a son of Andrew Johnson, whose father was killed at Pineville, Ky., as alleged, by the defendant, while the senior Johnson was serving as a policeman in that city. The son is now deputy sheriff of Bell county, Kentucky. Johnson feels bitter toward the accused, and he also says that Tate was concerned in the killing of a man named Gregory in Wise county, Virginia, four years before his own father was killed.

The Gillispie Case.

Rising Sun, Ind., April 29.—The May term of the Ohio circuit court will begin Monday next, Judge Downey presiding, and the cases against James Gillespie, Mrs. Belle Seward and Myron Barbour and wife, charged with the murder of Elizabeth Gillespie, will be called on the first day. Both sides are ready for trial. It has been decided not to ask for a change of venue. Judge Downey has ordered a special venire of 200 names to be drawn, from which jurors will be selected. James Gillespie's long confinement in jail has not dampened his spirits, and he is buoyant in manner and expresses himself confident of acquittal. The other defendants appear unconcerned. The feeling against the murderer of Miss Elizabeth Gillespie continues as it did the night the tragedy was enacted, but confidence is expressed in Judge Downey and his court that justice will be done.

Dropped to His Death.

Paoli, Ind., April 29.—Walter Bradshaw dropped to his death, and Joseph D. Murphy was dangerously injured by a fall of seventy feet from a swinging scaffold on the 100-foot trestle of the Monon railway. In the fall Bradshaw struck on his head and shoulders and died in a few minutes. Murphy caught hold of a broken plank, to which he clung for a few seconds, breaking the force of his fall.

John W. Terrell Sentenced.

Bluffton, Ind., April 29.—John W. Terrell, convicted by a jury on Dec. 20 of murder in the first degree for shooting his son-in-law, Melvin Wolfe, on July 12 last, has been sentenced to state's prison for life by Judge Smith. Terrell has been declared insane and his attorneys will carry his case to the supreme court in an effort to secure his confinement in an asylum instead of the penitentiary.

To Protect Telephone Girls' Ears.

Muncie, Ind., April 29.—On complaint of the young women telephone operators in the local exchanges the police will hereafter visit men who are accustomed to use profanity over the telephones, and will warn them that repetitions of this offense will result in arrest. The young women claim that they are offended almost daily in this manner.

A FEW OPINIONS OF

SEVEN BARKS

Extracts from Original Letters:

"I had impure blood and tetter. Your medicine cured me sound and well."—William S. Wiles, New Weston, Ohio.

"The only doctors I have had in my family for ten years are Seven Barks and Globe Pills. They are the best doctors in the world."—G. W. Kitteman, Silverton, Mo.

"I had four attacks of bilious fever. I tried many remedies with only temporary relief, until I resorted to Seven Barks. After one bottle I felt as good as ever I did."—Wade J. Shepard, Sandersville, Ga.

"I have not had a doctor in my family since I have been using your medicine (Seven Barks)."—Annie Hillis, Powhatan, Ark.

"Seven Barks is good for more diseases than it's recommended for."—Mrs. E. A. Hamilton, Sarabville, Ohio.

"After using two bottles of your Seven Barks my wife was entirely cured of rheumatism."—Frank B. Carman, Brooklyn, N. Y.

"I feel satisfied that if anything will prolong life it is Seven Barks and Globe Pills."—Wm. J. Hancock, Ogden City, Utah.

"For two years I had indigestion and dyspepsia in their worst form. Five bottles of Seven Barks entirely cured me."—Robert, Downs, Laura Furnace, Ky.

"We write to inform you of a miraculous cure effected in our neighborhood. William Woodell had a very bad leg—almost mortifying. Ten or twelve physicians treated him and failed to effect a cure. Eight bottles of your Seven Barks cured him. You can use our names as witnesses."—H. S. Wall, E. G. Barnes, T. A. Pounds, J. T. Poole, Archer Lodge, N. C.

NOTE—Seven Barks has made many such records in severe cases of blood diseases.

"I have used Seven Barks for the past twenty-one years."—Mrs. Annie Robinson, Folsom, Iowa.

"Doctors called it catarrh of the stomach and bowels. He is better now than for fifteen years. He owes it all to Seven Barks."—G. W. Viles, Collinsville, Ill.

"I have used Seven Barks for past twenty years. It has saved me many doctors' bills. Have found it a most excellent remedy for indigestion, loss of appetite and kidney troubles."—L. A. Ames, Prospect, Me.

We could use several pages of this size in reproducing short extracts from original letters in our possession, received from enthusiastic friends of "Seven Barks." There is no evidence of merit deserved we cannot produce, but the quickest way to settle all doubt, if in the reader's mind, is to buy a 50-cent bottle from your home druggist, and if you do not find it all we claim, get your money back. It will be cheerfully refunded by the druggist you bought of.

About nine o'clock last night a team of horses hitched to the private carriage of Dr. Hoaglin, of Milroy, while standing opposite the post office became frightened at the large automobile belonging to a medicine show, which is doing advertising work on our streets and backed into the side walk. One of the horses became entangled in the harness and fell down and it was some time before it could get onto its feet again. The driver was inside the rig at the time which is a closed carriage similar to Dr. Lot Green's and would no doubt have experienced great difficulty and danger in getting out of the vehicle had the team ran away.

Morristown is afflicted with a number of "speak-easies," an Indianapolis paper says, and as a result a number of intoxicated men are to be seen on the streets daily. The condition of things now existing is very unsatisfactory to a large number of Morristown people, and they will make every effort to stamp the evil out of existence in that vicinity.

New Castle Courier: Hon. L. P. Newby has again met defeat for second place on the Republican state ticket. Mr. Newby's chances for success were good and undoubted up to the coming out of Senator Ball, of Delaware county. Mr. Ball naturally drew on the forces of Mr. Newby and the state delegates went to the man from the southern part of the state, Hon. Hugh T. Miller. Mr. Newby is grateful to his friends, and has no sore spots. He has always worked hard for the party's success and finds no reason or cause to desist in that direction. His hand, voice and pocketbook are always ready.

Preparations are now being made to appeal to the Supreme Court in the Hudson case, which has been in the courts of Henry county for the last three years. The case was last tried in the local courts by Judge Headington, of Portland, and resulted in the court upholding the will. William Hudson, a wealthy farmer living in the southern part of that county, died and left his property to his two children, his wife having previously been given a decree of divorce. Two other children then brought suit to set aside the will on the ground that their father was of unsound mind, on account of a sunstroke, and that undue influence was used upon him.

"It ain't what it's cracked up to be," said the boy. "I'm sorry I learned it."

MR. BUTINSKY

The Man of Suggestive Ability

Hatches Candidates Daily.

A certain newspaper of uncertain politics, but whose editor has about two bushel of Hearst buttons about his office, and is an enthusiastic supporter of the "yellow kid" for President, is always seeking to "butt in" and name the candidates for the Republicans. This same wiley Hearstite says that John Kiplinger will be a candidate for joint senator for the counties of Rush, Shelby and Fayette, but Mr. Kiplinger on being interviewed, says that there is not one iota of truth in the report, and that he is in no sense a candidate for the place. This same "moulder of public opinion" and candidate maker has suggested three candidates for judge this campaign, and its editor would vote for neither of them against Judge Morris under any circumstances.

Mr. Sexton, one of the suggestions for Judge, has always been considered Rush county's logical candidate for joint senator instead of Judge and this departure, if anyone paid any attention to it, would make it appear that Mr. Sexton was a candidate for both places, and is necessarily embarrassing to him.

This careless way of announcing candidates is a great injustice to the man mentioned, if he is not a candidate, and especially is this true in the case of John Kiplinger and Gates Sexton, two prominent young attorneys, who, while either of them are capable and suitable for the places suggested, and are popular in this county, do not care to be branded as office seekers by a paper, uncertain politically and otherwise, and they surely resent such action.

To be the "exclusive candidate" of this man of such "prolific" suggestive qualifications has grown to be almost a calamity to men who really aspire for office.
